

2016 Michigan AFL-CIO Fellowship Program

Are you an undergraduate student who is tired of seeing Michigan's working families come under attack time and time again? Do you want experience in exciting fast paced legislative and organizing campaigns to take back the Michigan Legislature and uplift Michigan's working families in 2016? Apply now for a Fellowship emphasizing Communications, Legislative/Political Organizing with the Michigan State AFL-CIO!

The organizing fellowship will consist of hands on political organizing on behalf of the working men and women of Michigan through the Michigan State AFL-CIO. The fellowship will consist of volunteer engagement, recruitment, and training, political program support, political research, and entry-level database and targeting work. Ideal candidates will have working knowledge of the political process, or a strong desire to learn and employ organizing methods, in a challenging political environment.

Responsibilities:

- Promoting political and legislative education, awareness and engagement
- Recruiting for, creating, and/or coordinating volunteer events
- Developing and executing research methods and materials/events to further organizational goals

Expectations:

- Commitment to 10 - 15 hours of activity per week, on or off site
- Maintaining a hard-working and positive attitude Assisting Communications director with web and media materials

Qualifications:

- Ability to work in-office and/or remotely.
- Desire to learn about Michigan politics in a confidential work setting
- Proven, effective verbal and written communication skills
- Experience with social media (i.e. Facebook, Twitter, etc.)
- Proven ability to work independently, in one-on-one settings, and with a team
- Flexibility to effectively manage multiple tasks
- Ability to communicate with diverse groups of people

Please send your resume with references to mdavis@miaflcio.org